THE SENTINEL.

From the New York World.

LIGHTENING THE SHIP.

The Republicans are acting like mariners in a heavy tempest, who pitch overboard a great cargo to save the ship and crew. The first bale of freight tumbled into the sea was the liquor law in Massachusetts. All the prohibitory laws in that State have been Republican measures, advocated by Republican papers and stump speakers, passed by Republican Legislatures, executed by Republican constables, and opposed by Democratic speeches, votes, law-suits, invective and ridicule. But the Republican State Convention, warned by the sudden fall of the barometer, have declared that the Republican party must not be considered responsible for the liquor law; trying to save their ship by heaving it over, with some dim hope that it will float of itself.

The next valuable piece of freight that is to be flung into the devouring waves, is the Constitutional Convention of this State.—The calling of the Convention was a Republican movement. No Democrat desired or favored it. But since the Maine and California elections, the Convention is seen to be too heavy for the Republican ship, and although it has been decided by a caucus not to sacrifice it, it is nevertheless certain to go. The vessel careens so dangerously when this heavy incumbrance is carried to the edge of the deck, that there is nearly as much peril in casting it over as in keeping it on board; but over it will go, even if at the stern.

Even that precious part of the cargo, negro suffrage in this State, must go where Jonah went in the voyage to Nineveh; but it is doubtful if any compassionate monster will give it a subaqueous passage and vomit it up on dry land. It may be said that negro suffrage will be necessarily lost with the failure of the Convention. But this is not so. The article containing it was long ago completed, and the Democrats will generously propose to submit it at once, as a separate amendment. In the stress of political weather, the Republicans will not dare to do this; so urgent is their necessity of lightening the ship. They will, of course, contrive all sort of plausible excuses; but whatever may be their excuse for not submitting it, the real reason will be that they are scared by the certainty of its defeat.

The impeachment of President Johnson is another part of the Republican cargo that is destined to go overboard. Although the President has more boldly confronted and defied them since Congress adjourned than ever before, we shall hear little more about his impeachment, and that little will be fainter and fainter. The party is getting seriously alarmed, and the more discreet of its journals are warning and exhorting it against raising or reviving any issues on which the party is not a unit. All such warnings are, of course, signal-guns of distress.

GALVESTON, TEXAS.—A Federal officer at Galveston writes as follows:

"As to this city, there is no language adequate to describe the fearful reality. September is destined to prove its extreme results. Yesterday, and the day previous, each thirty-two deaths from yellow fever, and to-day, with the wind from the south, which to the afflicted brings not healing, but death on its wings, a large number of the thousands who are sick must die. It is said that over five thousand persons have had the disease, and that there is no day now when there is not at least fifteen hundred sick. The city is really 'a place of sickness and death.' There is nothing more appalling than the condition of things here. The groans of the dying on the battlefield are not more agonizing than the moanings of the sick and dying here. It is simply impossible to give a correct idea, and equally impossible for the medical and charitable associations to render anything like the necessary attention to the sick and dying. The Howard Association, the Charity hospitals, the Masons and Odd Fellows have exhausted treasure, time, and energy, and are now almost at their wits' end. Aid cannot come with requisite speed—sympathy is useless unaccompanied with material aid. Nursing and attention are far more necessary, and fraught with more beneficial results than even the physician's skill. Remittances to the Howard Association will be received with weeping gratitude by the suffering and their friends. Something must be done immediately for relief. Stores have been closed for weeks with none to furnish the needy. Many who have means have offered all for nursing and attention, while many who have nothing die for want of attention. A new cemetery, just opened, is already crowded; and the city of Galveston is doomed, with no hope for actual relief until cold weather, which in this latitude is in November or later. May the kindly disposed, who have abundance, give of their means. It will be casting 'bread upon the waters,' and 'after many days' they may 'find it.'"

MILITARY ORATORY.—In Washington, Monday night, Generals Sheridan, Hancock, and Sickles were serenaded at their respective hotels. In reply to a complimentary address, General Sheridan said:

"I sincerely thank you for this very earnest welcome, and shall always recollect the occurrences of to-night. The thought will give me a great deal of pleasure and pride. I feel greatly honored, especially as a portion of this assembly is composed of gallant officers and soldiers. I return again my thanks."

General Hancock responded to the address in his honor as follows:

"In going to a new field of duty, it will be a matter of pleasure and relief to know that I carry with me the sympathies, good wishes, and confidence of my old comrades in arms. I, therefore, have to thank you, soldiers, for this ovation, which will tend to lighten the burden of care which may follow me in the performance of the arduous and delicate duties of a district Commander in the Southern States."

General Sickles, being more politician than soldier, spoke at considerable length, defending Congress in placing the Southern States under military rule, and applauding the action of the Commandants of those States. In rehearsing the benefits that had been derived by the communities from this rule, it must be confessed that he got upon delicate ground when, in sight of the scene of the Key tragedy, he ventured to say "the mischievous practice of carrying weapons, that baneful source of affrays and disorder in Southern communities, has been suppressed."—Richmond Whig.

NEGROES GOING TO OHIO TO VOTE.—The Memphis Avalanche has information from several responsible gentlemen, who happened to be at the State line upon different days, that they found there from thirteen to fifteen cars filled with blacks who had been brought from Alabama, Georgia South Carolina and Southern Tennessee, and were going northward. A majority of them did not know where they were going to, but said the "Board was sending them some whar to vote." Some of the more intelligent ones said they were going to Ohio for that purpose. They were to go through Louisville without stopping, and all their expenses were to be paid by the Freedmen's Bureau. They were to vote as they were told, and were assured that the Bureau would take care of them and see to their getting farms for doing as they were directed. This is a fair specimen of the manner in which the people's money is squandered by the reckless Radical politicians, who swarm in the South under the guise of Freedmen's Bureau agents.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to Effect a Cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewal premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st. 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 25½ per cent., which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

and all Western and South Western Cities.

Passengers goin West from Raleigh, via the Baltimore & Ohio Rail Road, can either take the Route, via. Portsmouth and Bay Line of Steamers to Baltimore, or the route, via Richmond & Fredericksburg and Potomac Rail Road, to Washington City, where close connections are made with three Daily Express Trains on the Baltimore & Ohio Rail Road for all Western Cities, leaving as follows:

Leave Baltimore,
Mail Train,	8.45, A. M.
Fast Line,	5.30, P. M.
Express train,	9.45, P. M.
Leave Washington City,
Mail Train,	7.45 A. M.
Fast Line,	4.30, P. M.
Express Train,	8.45, P. M.

The advantages of this line over all others in Palace State Room Day and Night Cars, Saving in Time and distance, and so few changes of Cars, combine to render this the most pleasant and desirable Route, especially to Families, or Ladies Travelling Alone. There being but ONE Change of Cars between Baltimore, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and but TWO to St. Louis, Cairo, Chicago and the principal Cities West and South.

From Ten Dollars will be saved by purchasing through tickets, besides a great deal of annoyance at Points where Cars and Baggage are changed, whereas Passengers, holding through tickets, will get their Baggage checked through, and all transfers of Passengers and Baggage are made without any additional expense to the Passenger except the cost of through tickets. Passengers on through tickets can stop at any point on the route, as through tickets are good until used.

Passengers leaving Raleigh, Saturday morning, will not be detained at Baltimore or Washington on Sunday; they will take the Fast Line for the West in the afternoon.

LARGE PARTIES and FAMILIES, wishing to emigrate to the Western and South Western States, should address me, several weeks before starting, as a reduction will be made to Parties of ten full Passengers and upwards, if timely notice is given, besides receiving all further information.

AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED.

FOR THE CURE OF DISPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most celebrated and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, as have many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

WM. B. PELL, } SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1867.

WHO ARE ELIGIBLE TO THE CONVENTION?

A friend in Nash County writes us as follows:

"The Chairman of the Board of Registration in this County, a Radical candidate, has a letter from Major Compton, in reply to an enquiry on the subject, in which he states that members of the Convention will have to take "the iron-clad oath." Such an impression, coming from the source it does, is being used with effect.

The two precincts counted with the Wilson vote, which will vote with Nash proper, will give the whites about 300 majority in Nash. We will send a good man to the Convention, if we don't have too many candidates."

Our friends, everywhere, must avoid having too many candidates on our side, if they hope for success. Men who are not willing to lay aside personal prejudices or preferences, at a time like this, must expect to be laid aside by the people. We hope no Conservative man will think of running, unless he is clearly eligible under the Reconstruction Acts. The President's proclamation of amnesty can have no practical effect in qualifying persons to vote or to be members of the Convention authorized by the Reconstruction Acts. Before the question could be determined by the Courts, the whole matter of reconstruction will have been settled, we hope.

We do not recollect the position of Maj. Compton. If he be one of the Post Commanders, and we presume no other officer in the State would presume to give an official opinion upon the subject, it is quite clear, to our mind, that he is totally mistaken. The following are our reasons:

First, Gen. Sickles has already distinctly announced, in one of his Orders, which we cannot now refer to, that all persons in North and South Carolina, who are qualified to register, would also be eligible to seats in the Convention, if elected. But General Sickles knew that all persons entitled to register could not take the "iron-clad oath." Therefore, we argue that as all voters are not required to take it, neither will the delegates to the Convention be required to take it.

Secondly, the Reconstruction Acts are singularly reticent upon the qualifications of delegates to the Convention. The oath for the delegates is nowhere prescribed in any of the acts, but Gen. Sickles, having carefully examined the original and supplementary acts, sums up the whole matter in the brief section alluded to above.

The following proviso, appended to the 5th. section of the first Reconstruction Act, contains the only allusion to the qualification of delegates, which occurs in the Reconstruction Acts:

"Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the Convention to frame a Constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such Convention."

The term "said amendment" refers to the third section of the Howard amendment.

We, therefore, conclude that the delegates elected to the Convention to form a Constitution will only be required to take an oath of the following character:

First, they will take the oath which was prescribed for members of the State Conventions, which were held prior to the war, which we believe was an oath simply to support and defend the Constitution of the United States.

In addition to this, they will, we presume, be required to swear to something like the following:

"I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

If the military authorities consider us in error, we shall be obliged to them for any correction.

It may be not amiss to mention, that both Gen. Schofield and Gen. Pope have decided that no other qualifications, except those required for registration, are necessary for delegates to Conventions in their respective Districts.

"THE GALLED JADE WINCES."

No better evidence is wanting of the chagrin and bitter disappointment of the Ishmaelites, at the proposition to call a Conservative meeting, than the attempt made to asperse or to ridicule the signers of the call. The physic is working well. The Conservatives need the stirring up the Ishmaelites are doing for them. We shall have a rousing meeting to-night, and its influence will be felt from Currituck to Cherokee. Rally! Conservatives—and show the Ishmaelites that you are freemen and will call no man master. Show that you despise, with utter contempt, their malice or their ridicule. Keep cool, but work; and go to work like men.

The letters from our correspondents in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas, published in yesterday's Herald, offer but a gloomy picture of the actual state of things in the South. The deep shadows of the picture are relieved by very few rays of hopeful light. To be sure, it is a fact worthy fact, that in the alarm and confusion occasioned by a sharp fight between United States soldiers and ex-rebels at Raleigh, North Carolina, exciting among the inhabitants a fear that the war of races had fairly begun, "some of the Africans in the city were involved." Nevertheless, the testimonies from all points concur that amicable relations between the whites and the blacks have been succeeded not only by a growing disposition to have as little to do with each other as possible, but also by a growing spirit of mutual enmity.

We take the foregoing from the New York Herald, of the 24th. It will be news to our readers that a "sharp fight between United States soldiers and ex-rebels" has occurred in our goodly city. There is no community in the South in which the public peace is better preserved than in Raleigh, or in which there is more of tranquility, order and a law-abiding spirit.—Our people deserve all the more credit for this, in the face of the constant efforts that are being made by bad and scheming men to stir up animosities and excite strife. At least, if such is not their deliberate and wilful design, it is the tendency of their nefarious conduct.

The Herald has confounded Raleigh with Fayetteville. It was alleged, some days since, that a collision or disturbance of the character mentioned had occurred in the latter place, but the News, of that town, received on yesterday, denies the truth of the rumor; and it is said that Gen. Avery, who has just returned from a visit to Fayettville, reports the whole affair a canard, or, at all events, an inconsiderable occurrence, in which there was no array of "soldiers" against "ex-rebels."

We hardly know what to say, as to the information of the Herald, that "the amicable relations between the whites and the blacks have been succeeded, not only by a growing disposition to have as little to do with each other as possible, but also by a growing spirit of mutual enmity." We can answer for our white people. They continue to give the negroes steady employment and good wages, whenever they manifest an inclination to work and are respectful in their deportment, notwithstanding that it is known that many, perhaps a majority, of them belong to the "Leagues" or other secret organizations, wherein they are taught that the great masses of the whites are their foes, and in which they are vaguely promised some of their former owners' lands and other property. They are even told by indirection publicly, and probably directly in their midnight conclaves, not to allow any of their money to go into the tills of white merchants and others, who are not Radicals. They are sworn into the belief that Northern men and native Radicals are their true friends, who have no squeamishness about color, but are prepared to accord them equal rights,—political, civil, and, doubtless, social. Despite all this, we hear of no enmity towards the deluded and ignorant dupes. We hear of amazement and pity at their credulity, and of a stern resolve to take every peaceable measure for self protection that may be necessary, on the part of our white fellow citizens—but no anger, no bitterness.

We should deplore, as the worst of evils, the necessity of combining, as a class, against these unfortunate people, but there may arise a state of things that will justify even such a regrettable resort.

It is but proper to say, and we do it with great pleasure, that there are many colored men who are not animated by these feelings of hostility, and who cannot be duped by the white demagogues and incendiaries.—They deserve all credit, and they are justly esteemed by their white friends.

THE BLACK MAN'S PARTY.

The Radicals claim to have secured the favor and the co operation of all the colored men of the State. We do not believe this. There are many colored people, who have neither joined the Leagues, nor yet decided with which party they will act. Many of them are conservative men. They desire peace and prosperity to the country. They are not the enemies of the native whites of the South, nor are the whites their enemies.

But suppose the claim of the Radicals be true; then they have formed a black man's party and are responsible for the result, if such a state of things should result in a white man's party. The conservative men have desired no such result, nor have they turned a finger to bring about such a result. The whole matter turns upon the final decision of the colored people themselves. If any of them are conservative men, they will act with the Conservatives in defeating the wicked purposes of bad men. If they are all Radicals, in that event they, and their teachers whom they follow, will have formed a black man's party, and the Conservative whites will have no other alternative left them, but to coalesce and form a white man's party.

The case is therefore made plain. If a white man's party is formed, the Conservatives will not be responsible for it.

THE CALL for the great Conservative meeting, to-night, has been increased, since our last issue, by quite a large number of additional signers. By personal application, which there is not time to make, the signatures of nine tenths of the white men of the City could be obtained,—especially since the effort of the Ishmaelites to denounce and ridicule the demonstration.

Dr. Dolby, who came over as agent for Mr. Charles Dickens to examine the public pulse of this country, has taken over an offer from a prominent manager of two thousand dollars a night for one hundred readings, to be given in forty-five cities in the United States.

From an authoritative source it is learned that the President will shortly pardon Alexander H. Stephens, late Vice President of the Confederacy, upon the recommendation of persons of influence and distinguished position.

RALLY, CONSERVATIVES!

The time has fully arrived, when the calm, considerate and truly conservative men of the State should be fully aroused to the dangers sought to be inflicted upon us by the bitter and vindictive Radicals of North Carolina.

Within the space of forty days, the enfranchised voters of North Carolina will be called upon to determine who shall represent them in a State Convention, whose duty it shall be to embody the organic law of the State in the form of a new Constitution. To stand by, mere lookers on, in this fundamental work, may have been the policy of some; but in view of the evident purposes of the vindictive and persecuting spirit of the ultra Radicals in this State, it is high time that Conservative men, of all vocations and all pursuits, should rally to save the State from the ruin of ultra Radical rule.

We therefore call upon all men, who are interested in the preservation of the peace and quiet of the State, who are anxious for the harmony of the Union, for the recuperation of the State and the prosperity of all classes, to aid in defeating the mischievous aims of bad men in this State. Let every man opposed to such a reconstruction as now prevails in Tennessee, under the despotic Brownlow, where neither property, nor person, nor life is safe, rally, and the aims of wicked men shall be defeated.

THE BEST JOKE OF THE SEASON.—We learn, with some surprise and amusement, that the Ishmaelites charge upon the Senior Editor of this paper a desire to be made Governor of the State, which prompts him to co-operate in the movement of the Conservatives. The idea never occurred to us before, and is simply amusing. The position is one of respectability,—to be the successor, by the will of the people, of those eminent worthies who have been chosen by the people, and who have filled the office with dignity and honor. The names of the men who have filled that high position, legitimately, form a galaxy of talent and virtue, with which any one might feel proud to be classed. But editors or preachers make very poor apologies for Governors. We could never consent, while we have our senses, to stand in the category of the Editor, the Ex. P. G., nor in that of Parson Brownlow!

We have no doubt we would make a far better looking Governor than either of the latter, whether viewed either externally or internally, and our acts would no doubt be found to be wiser, purer and better; but there is no office in the gift of the people, or of the government, that we are anxious to fill. Politics is not a trade with us, nor a stepping stone to either social or official position, but the publication of a secular and political newspaper is simply a necessity and a duty. Beyond this we have no aspiration.

MORE BROWNLOWISM.—The name of Brownlow has become synonymous with the vilest and most despicable treachery, and the most reckless and unscrupulous tyranny. With his standing army at his back, he makes and unmakes laws, and legislatures, and constitutions, and courts, and enforces his edicts at the point of the bayonet. His last act of unscrupulous despotism is the utterance of a proclamation nullifying the charter of Nashville and other cities of Tennessee, and requiring the municipal election to be held by judges and clerks selected by his own commissioners of registration, instead of by the municipal boards, as provided by the charters. His organ, in a coarse, bullying style, chuckes over this latest usurpation, and menaces the people with its enforcement by Brownlow's militia. The people of Tennessee have been truly very cruelly cursed with the despotism of this political monster.—Nat. Intel.

COTTON AND THE WORMS.—The worm is playing sad havoc with the cotton crop in this section of Alabama. An intelligent planter yesterday informed us that the crop was now cut one-half short, and that the worms in many fields had entirely stripped the fruit of its leaves and were at work on the bolls, and in some localities had even commenced on the stalk. Where the stalk is "barked" a total failure is the certain result. This is sad news indeed. About six weeks ago the country was electrified with the magnificent cotton prospects throughout the entire cotton States. But destruction has overtaken the fleecy staple, and the wet weather and worms have dispelled the anticipations of all. The only consolation left to the planter is the knowledge of an abundant grain crop, which has been made and harvested.—Montgomery Mail.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHARGE AGAINST MR. STANTON.—A dispatch to the N. Y. World says: Congress reconvenes in little more than seven weeks; but long before that time the President will have the charge and reason for suspending Secretary Stanton from the War Department ready for submission to the Senate, as required by the civil tenure-of-office law. The case made out by the President is an exceedingly strong one, and the Senate will find itself enlightened in matters it little dreams of when it receives the document in the premises.

THE QUESTION SETTLED BY GEN. SCHOFIELD.—We have been shown a letter from Gen. Schofield to Capt. Earle, president of the board of registration for this county, written in answer to the question, "Will the members of the Convention be required to take the oath prescribed by the act of Congress of July 2, 1862?"—in other words, the iron clad; in which Gen. Schofield says that no such oath will be required, and that any one entitled to vote under the reconstruction act is eligible as a member of the Convention.—Petersburg Gazette.

RADICAL RESPONSIBILITY.—Among the items to be charged to Radical management, says the Chicago Times, are the death of military men from yellow fever in the Southern States. All these men were sent there solely and purely to register negroes for the coming Presidential election. Over the graves of such men as Griffin should be inscribed: "Fell a victim to the Radical desire to elect a President in 1868."

The Mexico city press announce the arrival of Maximilian's body, and its departure for the coast. This is untrue, as it has not yet left Queretaro. His remains have been most shamefully treated. The coffin was placed in a filthy, dark bodega, and all who desired had free access. The glass cover was broken, his beard and hair cut off and sold, as well as pieces of his blood-covered garments, and no one would recognize in the contents of the coffin the body of the murdered Maximilian.

A devoted wife in Kentucky, when informed that her husband had but a day to live, took arsenic so that she might die with him.

For the Sentinel.

THAT CONVENTION—ITS ORATORS.

"Gov. W. W. Holden rose and addressed the meeting at considerable length." So says the Standard's report. As we know well enough who is meant, we shall not cavil either with the truth, or the modesty of Mr. Holden's prefix. He has a perfect right to call himself what he pleases in his own paper.

This gentleman, in former times, used to call Gen. Dockery "old Gwanny." And the General, not long ago, returned the compliment by calling the scoffer "the greatest liar of them all"—or by saying that "Holden outlied them all." We have really forgotten which, and think that the party entitled should have the benefit of the doubt.

There is a musty old adage, which we scorn to repeat in this connection, about happy results when a certain class of people "fall out with each other." It would be very impertinent now, as they have fallen in again, so lovingly, and so trustfully.—When Greek meets Greek, in war, there is a "tug." Not so, when they rush into each others arms; then comes the hug—of peace. Let nothing be said on this interesting occasion, that would mar the exquisite beauty of the scene! Let "Gwanny" be forgotten; let falsehood be truth; and let Africa and the Northern element commingle their odors and spices, (nutmegs included) with loyal Southern perfumes; and let all be happy together, as marriage bells, for the great millenium is not far off. Raleigh smelt a little of it a short time ago.

Let us run over Gov. W. W. Holden's address, pencil in hand; and mark some of the passages, which we fear General Dockery would characterize much more energetically then suits our taste. We shall only call them mistakes. He would call them something else, in plain Saxon English.

"I find, Sir, that certain vile accessionists and rebels have put in circulation an anonymous pamphlet, the main object of which is to injure me in the estimation of my colored friends here and throughout N. C. I refer, Sir, to a pamphlet issued from a press in this City, containing what I suppose were my sentiments in 1859, in regard to slaves and free persons of color;—eight years ago, Sir." (Altogether a mistake as to the manner of issuing—and only true as to what were his sentiments, "eight years ago, Sir.") "I pretend, Sir, not to be either consistent or infallible." (Should rayther think not.) "I am both bold and honest." (The Court takes an advisement.) "I then maintained * * * that the slave was entitled to sit side by side with his master and to approach the communion table under the same circumstances, on the same floor, and beneath the same roof." (Not exactly side by side, Bro. Holden, but in the same church, so that they could be well watched. But if you remember, a separate African Church was your special horror, and therefore you wanted them to be under the eye of their masters, where, as they were indisputably "well fed and well clothed," if they did not behave themselves, they might be—"well whipped.")

"I then maintained that the black man and the white man were alike responsible to the Father of us all." (Did you indeed think so? Doubtful whether you said much about it—in those days.)

"I asserted at that day absolute equality in matters spiritual, and in the presence of the one all-seeing and all judging God, between the master and his slave." (Did you indeed? 'Twas very good in you, and very pious. Queer that nobody ever heard of your apostolical eloquence, though.—What church do you go to?)

"Sir, the Editors of the newspaper, at whose office this article was first printed and published, would not merely hesitate a long while, but they would scorn to sit on the same floor and worship the same God with the enfranchised colored people whom I see here to-day." (Mistaken again—off the track—lost in the woods—poor child!)

"And I tell you further, sir, that one of the Editors of that very journal, during the rebellion, served in this city a colored congregation, and depended for his bread largely upon the contributions of that colored congregation." (A grand mistake. Neither of these editors ever served a colored congregation, or ever preached a sermon in his life.)

"My newly enfranchised friends will bear witness that I was the first public man in North Carolina to declare, as I did in the African church, of this city, on the 1st. day of January, 1867, for general negro suffrage." (Applause.) (Glad to find out what church you attend. How do you feel, brother?)

"Very soon after that, (Gov. Worth's speech,) the Capitol square was filled with placards reading "keep off the grass"—(Laughter.") (That was very funny, sure enough—and those who knew that the placards were put up several months before the speech of Gov. Worth was made, had special reason for laughing, at the—the—mistake of the X. P. G.)

A mighty warrior once commanded the sun to stand still till he could fight out the fight. The "glorious orb of day" obeyed the command and gazed without moving, or winking, for hours, on a terrible slaughter.

Great was Joshua, the son of Nun! But a greater than Joshua is here! A slender stripling hath arisen from the woods of North Carolina, who, valiantly seizing the scythe of old Father Time with one hand and his top-knot in the other, arrested his mowing operations not for a few hours only, but made him take the back track for nearly as many months, and set him down on Capitol Square to mow grass, that had not yet even sprouted. Joshua did very respectably, considering how little he knew of Yankee inventions. He was even aided by a Higher Power to do what little he did.—Without any such aid, but with only the usual lift from the "Father of"—mistake—our "bold and honest" Hero gave old Time such a terrible twist, so tumbled and tossed him "hither an' yan," and so took his pride down by a kick a posteriori when he turned him out to grass on Capitol Square, that the bewildered old fellow has hardly yet succeeded in gathering himself together, and goes about so wildly and permiskusly swaying his scythe, and whacking away in such indiscreet higgledy-piggledy fashion, that he is considered dangerous—and some think that Dr. Fisher ought to take him in charge. His brain seems to be addled by the sturdy thwacks of the X. P. G. and he is really bothered to know whether it is really himself that is botching his work so abominably, or whether it may not be some raw Irish Harvester from Tipperary, just come over with his new fangled patent grass cutter, roaring out the bold anthem of Erin go Bragh. He even doubts, since the X. P. G. has taken the matter in hand, whether his "occupation is not clean gone."

The times are sadly out of joint. No mistake about that. And Father Time has been so jolted and bedeviled here in Raleigh, that he may well have doubts—such as Sancho Panzo had after his preposterous ride—whether his bones are the same bones they were a fortnight ago, or are in the same places.

There was once a gun so indiscreetly charged, that it

"When aimed at duck or plover,
Shot wide and kicked the shooter over."

Great was Joshua, the son of Nun!
But greater is our son of as gun!

Only he is sometimes a little lacking in discretion. Is it wise to have taught Gov. Worth how to roll back the wheels of time? He is pretty smart and by no means slow in taking a hint. May he not somehow loo the X. P. G. a little longer, whose mouth so waters for that small three-legged stool? And is there no danger that he may, in a new mysterious way, turn back and take a new start in his Gubernatorial career, to the great dismay of divers and sundry who have long been looking wistfully over the fence—who may be doomed to "keep off the grass" rather longer than they expected? Already the "hope deferred" hath sickened their hearts. And what will become of poor dear "Font," once grand fisherman to the army of Northern Virginia! Will he have to chant imploringly, semi-despairingly, and between drinks, the old piscatory song of Sam Jones, from Sandy Hook?—And all in vain!

"This was the prayer of Sam's:
"Oh let me have good luck to-night
"And catch a load of chubs!"

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Great Through Freight Route: R. B. Pegram, General Superintendent of the Petersburg Railroad.—The Petersburg Index says:

"This road has now been completed to the wharves on the Appomatox river, and the facilities of receiving and forwarding through freight have been immeasurably increased. Cars now load and unload at the steamers' sides, and the expense and the trouble and wear of drayage through the city are entirely avoided. Arrangements have been made with the different railroads in North and South Carolina, for the transportation of through freights to all points on their lines, and with the several steamers running from Petersburg and City Point to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, for the conveyance of all such freights.—Through bills of lading will be given between any of these points, North and South, and freights will be transported as expeditiously and as cheap as by any other route. Great inducements are offered shippers by this route."

"LAND WE LOVE."—This indispensable Magazine for October has been received.—We have had no leisure, as yet, to look over it, but its table of contents is as inviting as usual. We miss the Haversack, however. We presume that its non-appearance is owing to the fact that Gen. Hill has been absent the greater part of the past month.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.—We acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the "Minutes of the Proceedings of the Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the Medical Society of North Carolina," held at Tarboro, on the 15th. of May. It not only contains the proceedings proper, which were noticed by us at the time, but embraces the various able, scientific and interesting papers that were submitted on subjects appertaining to the Profession. Among these we observe a paper on miscellaneous surgical subjects, by Dr. J. Burke Haywood, of this City, one of the most accomplished members of the Profession in the State. It received a special vote of commendation from the Society.

THE SIDE-WALKS OF RALEIGH.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Through the columns of your paper I desire to call the attention of the citizens and Commissioners of Raleigh to our side-walks.

By the Charter of our City, as amended, the streets are required to be kept in order by the Commissioners, while it devolves upon the owners of property, or those "having as great an interest therein as a lease for three years," to keep the side-walks in repair. It is also enacted that they shall be improved as the Commissioners shall direct, and further, "on failure to do so within twenty days after notice by the Constable to said owner, or, if he be a non-resident of the County of Wake, to his agent, or if such non-resident have no agent in said County, then after advertisement for twenty days on said lot, and at the Court House door, calling on the owner to make such repairs, the Commissioners may cause the same to be repaired either with brick, stone or gravel at their discretion, and the expense shall be paid by the person in default."

At the present time, when so many new buildings are being put up, it is an easy task to obtain any quantity of clay cheaply, which, being well covered with a layer of sand, makes an admirable walk. Such spots as are on Hillsboro street, with huge roots running across the path, and half a dozen other places I could name, are a terror to tight boots, thin slippers, and rheumatic knees, and disgraceful to the City. Those who are able to own property on the street are expected by the public to keep their side-walks in order. A word to the wise, &c."

CIVIS.

Bishop Johns has deposed the Rev. G. T. Williams from the Episcopal ministry, at the request of Mr. Williams, who thought his usefulness destroyed by the charges of theft brought against him in New York, although the indictment was quashed by the Grand Jury.

To the Conservative Constitutional Union Men of Wake County.

The undersigned, citizens of Wake County, friends of the American Union and supporters of the Constitution of the United States, being convinced that the incorporation of the Brownlow Holden-Radical programme into the Constitution of the State would most surely embarrass, if not annihilate, all enterprise and all hope of recuperation, and would discourage all immigration, the investment of capital and diminish or destroy the sources of employment to our laboring population, do most earnestly implore all Conservative citizens of every County in the State, to hold meetings for the adoption of such plans as they may deem wisest and best, for uniting and consolidating the Conservative influence in the State, to effectively prevent the success of ultra Republican or Radical rule in our State organization.

The Congress of the United States has cut us off from all participation at present in National politics. Nothing is left us but the care of our State institutions, and this movement has nothing to do with National politics or with hindering or attempting to obstruct the operation of any law of Congress. It has simple reference only to the preventing of the incorporation of those Radical principles and measures into our State organization, which would place the control and government of the State in the hands of the ignorant, the vicious and the most unprincipled among us, which would certainly result in the destruction of the enterprise and vitality of the State. All the aid or encouragement, therefore, which this movement could give to the friends of Constitutional liberty and free government elsewhere, would be simply incidental.

We, therefore, urge all Conservative Constitutional Union men of the County of Wake, holding these views, to unite with us in holding a meeting at the Court House in this city, on Friday evening, the 27th. of the present month, at half past 7 o'clock, to effect the above named object, and we urge our fellow citizens of the several registration precincts in the County to unite with us, or hold meetings in their several precincts.

ASSASSINATION OF FORMER CONFEDERATES.—A letter from Panama, dated 11th September, states that four ex-officers of the Rayo, or R. R. Cuyler, were brutally beaten, and two of them killed, by the populace of Carthagenia, in New Granada. The two that were killed were Messrs. John W. Murdaugh, of Portsmouth, Va., and George A. Borchert, of Savannah, Georgia, ex-confederates. They were commissioned by President Gutierez to go to Carthagenia and investigate some rubber claims committed upon the steamer Rayo. The two not killed, but severely wounded were in charge of the American Consul. The two wounded persons are Thomas L. Dorsin, of Norfolk, Va., and Phillip Smith, of Fairfax county, Va. Up to the 5th. inst. nothing had been done; no arrests had been made, and no one dared to speak of the affair. After the murder, the Consul proceeded to bury the dead bodies, which he found stripped of everything valuable. The dispatches and letters of protection they bore were delivered next day to the President of the State, all bespattered with their blood.

Mr. Murdaugh was the brother of Mrs. Fanny Downing, of Charlotte, and was a gentleman of the most generous qualities and of fine attainments. His untimely death will be mourned deeply by all who knew him.

It is distressing to have one's "name spelt wrong in the gazette," and not pleasant for one's editorials to be credited to a contemporary. This last thing has happened to us. The Raleigh Sentinel, of the 23d, copies our article on the University of North Carolina and flatters us by attributing it to the Norfolk Journal.

Having been at one time a voter in the Old North State, we are shocked at the idea of losing our identity, as well as residence.—Norfolk Virginian.

A Frenchman, being about to remove his shop, his landlord inquired the reason, stating at the same time that it was considered a very good stand for business. The Frenchman replied, with a shrug of the shoulder, "Oh yes, he's very good stand for business by gar, me stand all day, for nobody come to make me more."

NORTH STATE ITEMS.

—A correspondent, writing from Franklin County, says:

"Your article in reference to the Cotton crop, in your section, holds good in this section. Fickle that prophet the finest yield are eaten up in about two days. The worm and rust seem to carry every thing before them to destruction, except a few bottom bolls that are opening. Farmers from the lower Counties say they will not make a half crop and but little corn."

—There is to be a grand rally of the Conservatives of Lincoln, in Lincolnton, on Saturday, the 5th. of October.

—K. J. Bradley, Esq., leads the farmers of Cumberland. On Friday last, he put into the market of Fayetteville the first bale of new Cotton which has been brought to that place. The purchasers were Messrs. Jno. D. Williams & Co.

—The Fayetteville News says that Gen. Avery, Judge Advocate of the Military Court, has recently visited that town, for the purpose of collecting additional testimony in the case of Messrs. E. P. Powers, Lutterloh and Hall, whose trial is to begin in a few days.

—The Salisbury Banner says that Mr. Samuel R. Harrison has opened an exceedingly rich gold mine some six miles South of that place.

—Five white men, retailers of groceries, have been tried before a Military Commission in Wilmington, charged with a violation of Gen. Sickles' Order No 32, relative to the sale of spirituous liquors. The findings have not transpired.

—There is no place in the South more noted for an enlarged spirit of liberality than our sister-town of Fayetteville. In every respect, it is a model community. The Wilmington Star refers to the following recent exhibition of its whole souled spirit:

"The handsome residence of Mrs. Wm. McLaurin (whose late husband was well know to the citizens of Wilmington) was destroyed by fire, with all its contents, including even the wearing apparel of the family. There being no insurance on the building or furniture, Mrs. McLaurin was left almost destitute by this terrible calamity.

But that grand feeling of sympathy which gives expression in "a dark not words" was again aroused in the heart of Fayetteville. Her people went to work; and, in a short time, over one thousand dollars had been contributed to the cause of Christian charity."

—The Norfolk Virginian gives the following details of a sad and distressing affair:

"A few days since a gentleman from Richmond, in passing over the Danville railroad, met at Burkville Junction, a gentleman and lady, who were pointed out to him as an eloping party, who had come down on the road that morning with the intention of keeping on to Richmond, but he had received a dispatch at Burkville, which caused them to stop at that junction and wait until the up-train went along, when they got aboard and retraced their steps in the direction of North Carolina. On reaching Greensboro' they went to the "Southern House," and registered as "Mr. Walter and lady, of Norfolk." They remained in Greensboro' but a short time, when the gentleman procured an ambulance, and the pair went into the country together.

The Mr. Walter alluded to is said to be a man by the name of W. A. Walker, formerly of this city, but more recently a clerk to Mr. Solomon's office, in Halifax, North Carolina. Mr. W. J. Solomon is a gentleman of wealth, learning and high standing, and his wife, to whom he has been married for ten years, without issue, is one of the most beautiful and accomplished ladies of that county. She has recently been in delicate health, and several weeks ago went to the buffalo Springs in Mecklenburg county in this State, to recuperate her system. While there, Walker went to see her. He crossed the country from the junction, in a close carriage, and remained some time, and the two left the springs on Monday of last week.

The Richmond Examiner of yesterday says, in connection with this elopement, that on Sunday morning the chief of police received the following telegram, which shows that Mr. Solomon is more anxious to recover the goods taken off than Mrs. S:

PETERSBURG, Sept. 21.

Chief of Police, Richmond.—A gentleman of small stature, dark hair and moustache, and false teeth in front, with a lady of small size, and dark hair, my wife, described in the Enquirer and Examiner of the 21st of September, eloped with goods stolen from me. Employ detectives, and, if found, have them arrested.

Address

W. P. SOLOMON,
Enfield, N. C.

Mrs. Solomon was surrounded by comforts and had everything her heart could wish for, and what but the exercise and use of the basest means could have induced her to abandon them? Walker is a man of no property, and we imagine of but little heart."

RICHMOND MATTERS—GEN. BEAUREGARD.

RICHMOND, Sept. 26, P. M.

Gen. Brown issued an order to-day directing the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau of this District to turn over to the civil authorities all the negro paupers, and none other, who have been residing here since January 1st, 1861.

In the case of Keebler, a soldier up on habeas corpus before the State Court, on the ground of being a minor, and not legally held in the army, the military authorities refused to obey the writ.

Gen. Beauregard arrived here this evening.

AGAINST TEMPERANCE.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Sept. 26—P. M.

The German Convention has resolved to support home unless they are pledged to oppose temperance and the Sunday laws.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINTER Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war, and will be found to contain everything suitable for Ladies and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10 1-2, 12 1-2, 15 and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOS, 25 cts. per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties for fall and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion. Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,

CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS,
AND KENTUCKY JEANS

Ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS.

LADIES' CLOAKS,

BREAKFAST SHAWLS,

SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies, Misses and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS, new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Dress Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

Ladies' Dress Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

Ladies' and Misses' Gaiters, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't buy until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are "back again"; some say they have "put the nail on the head"; some "selling out at cost to make room for a new stock"; some something and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," or have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for sale at

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I feel as confident as a man of my size, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

A. CREECH'S,

THE BEST

BLOOD PURIFIER

In the World,

DR. LAWRENCE'S

CELEBRATED

ROSADALIS.

READ THE FOLLOWING

HOME CERTIFICATES

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is also an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

W. A. DUGGAN, M. D.,
E. BARNES, M. D.,
R. W. KING, M. D.

Wilson, N. C., February 4th, 1867.

We hereby certify that we regard Dr. Lawrence's Compound Extract of Rosadalis as a Reliable Alterative, &c.

A. D. MOORE, M. D.,
I. A. SITES, M. D.

Wilson, N. C., May 10, 1867.

Edgecombe County, N. C., May 24, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.

A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee, and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

LATIMER WILLIAMS.

Wilson, May 12, 1867.

Rosadalis will cure the very worst cases of Chronic Rheumatism.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6th, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles, having had as many as fourteen large ones, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

"BLACK LOYALTY."

LEST THE FACTS OF HISTORY BE PERVERTED!

Nigh a million of lives we have spent
And three billions of dollars or more,
That each fetter in twain should be rent
And the slave-horn be heard never more;
Full six years we have given to the BLACK,
And the thing was undoubtedly right—
Now suppose, just to alter the tack,
We devote half an hour to the WHITE?

When the South in its hour of mad pride
At Fort Sumter let drive the first shot,
Neck and heels our poor Sambo was tied,
And the North held one end of the knot,
But our hold we let go at the sound,
For both hands we required in the fight—
And the War for the BLACK was then found,
Quite a tough job of work for the WHITE.

Well, we fought—aye, for four years we fought,
Pouring out lavish treasure and life,—
Did the BLACK then arise as he ought,
Cleaving Northward with torch and with knife?
All his masters were far from his track,
Under Johnston and Lee in the fight;
There was nothing to hold the BLACK back
From assisting his champion, the WHITE.

Did he aid us when bleeding we stood
To chase from his slavery's dreams,
Or to Lee sent he clothing, and food,
Harness, powder, equipments, and teams?
We all know that in one single State
A revolt would have ended the fight—
So no more of their "loyalty" prate,
For the BLACK reps were worse than the WHITE.

The WHITE rebels came with a cheer,
Their bayonets aslant and aglow;
While the BLACK rebels skunk in the rear,
Assisting (and freely,) our foe;
Phillips, Sumner, and men of that school,
May chuckle and chatter from morning till night—
But if Black or White Rebels must rule,
Then, by Heaven! count me in for the WHITE!

It would sicken a dog this vile cant
That we hear of "Black Loyalty" now—
And I notice the twaddlers who rant
On the subject, were far from the row;
But since cold has been Lee's latest gun,
And since Johnston stacked arms after fight,
We are told "by black valor we won"—
'Tis all humbug to laurel the WHITE!

To the BLACK rebel glory and power,
To the WHITE rebel chains and disgrace!
Oh, eighteen, and worse, rules the hour,
We are false to faith, wisdom, and race!
To my heart with you, Longstreet and Hill,
Johnston, Lee—every man in the fight,—
You were rebels, and bad ones, but still,
You share my misfortune—you're WHITE!

MILES O'REILLY,
Late Private 47th Reg't N. Y. Vol. Infantry.

EPIGRAMS.

The conundrum and epigram, says the New York Commercial, are perhaps the most appropriate dishes in which to serve up light wit. The effect is about the same in each. The methods of the two are different. The conundrum states a proposition, and requires an answer without a demonstration. The epigram argues the question and reaches a logical conclusion. The epigram is slow. The conundrum is quick.—The latter requires accuracy of statement, the former consisting of argument. In fact, the epigram is a labored conundrum. Both depend generally upon a play upon words. To illustrate: "Why is there no hereafter for chickens? Because they have their necks twirled in this." Here no one is supposed to question the conclusion. It any one should do so, reasoning may resorted to, thus:

'Tis plain that chickens have no hope
For a world of future bliss,
Since fate declares that they should have
Their next world (necks twirled) in this.

This gives the exact difference between two popular watering places:

"Saratoga and Newport—you've seen them," said Charley, one morning, to Joe;
"Pray tell me the difference between them,
For bother my wig if I know!"

Quoth Joe, "'Tis the easiest matter,
At once to distinguish the two—
At the one you go into the water,
At the other it goes into you!"

Matthew Arnold throws out some useful hints to poets, thus:

What poets feel not, when they make
A pleasure in creating,
The world, in its turn, will not take
Pleasure in contemplating.

What have the women to say to this:

Women were born, so fate declares,
To smooth our lives and our cares;
And 'tis but just, for by my troth
They're very apt to ruffle both.

The Boston Post gives publicity to the following dialogue about the vexed question of the weather:

"I think," said Isabel, 'the tearful sky
Is weeping sadly—only hear it sigh."
"Do not," said Quilp, "commiserate its woes,
It does not weep—it only blows its snows."

It were not difficult nor altogether unpleasant to solve such chess problems as this. (Two pieces on the board; John to move and mate in two moves:)

John moves his arm round Julia's neck,
She moves one square and whispers—"Check;"
He, nothing daunted, moves right straight
His lips to hers, and calls out—"Mate!"

Coventry Patmore gives the following advice:

So let no man, in desperate mood,
Wed a dull girl because she's good.

To which one might add:

And let no woman, in her plight,
Wed a tad man because he's bright.

The Boston "Post" thus embodies Bonner and his newly purchased horse, Dexter:

"Fifty thousand for Dexter!" a cavalier cries,
"Excuse me—let people believe it who can!"
"'Tis nothing surprising," a crony replies,
"For Bonner was always a Dexter-ous man!"

A soldier in the hospital, who had his left leg amputated, addressing the detached part, thus turns the calamity to his advantage:

Strange paradox! that in the fight
Where I of thee was thus bereft,
I lost my left leg for "the right,"
And yet the right is the one that's left!

COTTON GIN HORSE POWERS.

WE BEG LEAVE TO INVITE THE ATTENTION OF COTTON PLANTERS TO OUR

IMPROVED EIGHT-FEET STATIONARY POWER.

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hood, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully,
WM. H. HOOD.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN BOATS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation of $285,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs,

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia by the Annamessie Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York, by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trans Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessie.

ALL STATE

RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight

ROUTE,

Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are required so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another Route!

To insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely, direct your consignors to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth, Va., or City Point Va., via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

FROM BOSTON:
Merchants' & Miner's Line, end of Central Wharf, E. Sampson, Agent.

FROM NEW YORK:

WM. C. NICHOLS, M. D., C. J. BICKHAM, M. D.

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital, commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.
W. B. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.
THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.
D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.
J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.
PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. They are gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.
RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of —— or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."—which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

SEC. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such state by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

SEC. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of ejection, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

SEC. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

SEC. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

SEC. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench.

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
